TOMORROW'S WORKWEAR WITH FIBERS FROM YESTERDAY.

Put an end to compromises: discover our new, sustainable, and smart workwear collection now.

HERE WORKWEAR IS FAIR

For us, sustainability is much more than just a trend. It has been firmly embedded in our corporate philosophy for generations. With ecoLight, we are presenting a workwear collection that takes the next step toward the future. Every single ecoLight garment embodies our high quality standards and, above all, circular fabric. The fibers in this fabric are obtained from old textiles that have been recycled after use and returned to the product cycle. At teamdress, we not only focus on functionality and timeless design, but also on the longevity of our collections. Our credo is that true sustainability means durability – and something that people enjoy wearing. That's why ecoLight focuses on modern cuts that convey stylish "lightness" by eliminating superfluous design elements. The result is a collection that impresses with its comfort and its price. ecoLight proves that sustainability and cost efficiency are no longer incompatible. As a traditional company, we have stood for durability, fair partnerships, and high customer satisfaction for over 100 years. With ecoLight, we are bringing these values into the future. Be part of it!

'We stand for resource-conserving and durable workwear. We are proud to offer products that are both environmentally friendly and of high quality.'

Corinna Horndahl, Managing Director and Head of Product Development
